Pencil Notes by H.A. Hall (split collection in Bunbury)

Grandma's maiden name was Branson, and she was a cousin of Grandpapa's, her Christian name you can find in that list Grandpapa handed to the W.A. Govt. When applying for his Land Grant

Laetitia until Robt. embezzled, was sacked and had to go on the land near Blackwood Parta. Issue - 3 children - Valentine married Matilda Ann Logue, Reg married Rose Medcalf from Victoria, governess to the Heppingstones at Bundemup, and a spastic girl Alice who lived many years and died in Perth Lunatic Asylum. Uncle Robt. wouldn't work, his chief occupation was seducing women, and Aunt Laetitia and the children lived chiefly on Aunt Theodosia and VE's bounty.

When Aunt Lucy died, her (Aunt Laetitia) boys were old enough to work and Aunt L went to V.A. to look after his motherless children, who only had the young nurse-maid Lillian Bruce to care for them. Things went on smoothly for some time until V.A. married the N.M., when poor Aut. Laetitia was out on a limb again. My father at this time was in business in Cossack, he secured Aut. L. the job of school-mistress in Roebourne and gave Reg a job in his Cossack business. Val came overland with Clarkson. Val was, though young, an exceptional bushman, one Clarkson and Val used to go ahead to locate water and feed, and the other shoe of silk brocade with a high [illegible]

Hall woman danced in at a Court Ball

A Thomson
1/8/1992.

Laetitia until Robt. embezzled, was sacked and had to go on the land near Blackwood Parks. Issue - 3 children - Valentine married Matilda Ann Logue, Reg married Rose Medcalf from Victoria, governess to the Stephenstones at Cundinup, and a spastic girl Alice who lived many years and died in Perth Lunatic Asylum. Uncle Robt. wouldn't work, his chief occupation was seducing women, and Aunt Laetitia and the children lived chiefly on Aunt Theodosia and V E's bounty.

When Aunt Lucy died, her (Aunt Laetitia) boys were old enough to work and Aunt L went to V.A. to look after his motherless children, who only had the young nurse-maid Lillian Bruce to care for them. Things went on smoothly for some time until V.A. married the N M, when poor At. Laetitia was out on a limb again. My father at this time was in business in Cossack, he secured At. L. the job of school-mistress in Rockbourne and gave Reg a job in his Cossack business. Val came overland with Clarkson. Val was, though young, an exceptional bushman, one Clarkson and Val used to go ahead to locate water and feed, and the other

Laetitia until Robt. embezzled, was sacked and had to go on the land near Blackwood Parta. Issue - 2 children - Valentine married Matilda Ann Logue, Reg married Rose Medcalf from Victoria, governess to the Steppingstones at Cundinup, and a spastic girl Alice who lived many years and died in Perth Lunatic Asylum. Uncle Robt. wouldn't work, his chief occupation was seducing women, and Aunt Laetitia and the children lived chiefly on Aunt Theodosia and VE's bounty.

When Aunt Lucy died, her (Aunt Laetitia) boys were old enough to work and Aunt L went to V.A. to look after his motherless children, who only had the young nurse-maid Lillian Bruce to care for them. Things went on smoothly for some time until V.A. married the NM, when poor At. Laetitia was out on a limb again. My father at this time was in business in Cossack, he secured At. L. the job of schoolmistress in Rockbourne and gave Reg a job in his Cossack business. Val came overland with Clarkson. Val was, though young an exceptional bushman, one Clarkson and Val used to go ahead to locate water and feed, and the other

Uncle Jas. Anderton married Aunt Lucy Lazenby and for a time rented Wungong, later he lived at Nandigong (WANDIONG) BEENYUP and he lived at MUNDIJONG dairying and dealing in cattle. During this period he lost his wife Lucy Lazenby and had his sister Aunt Laetitia house keeping for his orphaned children. Clarence (died of measles in Rockbourne), Kate died of typhoid in Rockbourne, Willie who afterwards owned Eglen Glorie Station on the Ashburton, drank himself out of it and ended his days a bachelor with Eva at Bunbury, Ernest you know all about, Sam married Effie Murray. Aunt Laetitia married Robt. Hester, brother to Aunt Theodosia's husband Edwd. Hester. He was a waster; in those early days there were I think no Police, only soldiers and mounted Troopers to handle the hostile abos., & escaped convicts, and influence was needed to get into this force. Edwd. and Robt. Hester's father Capt. Hester, who fought at Waterloo and was R.M. for the Canning District, got both E and R. into this force. E. left fairly soon, started a store in Bunbury and after success there took up Blackwood Park. Robt. stayed on & was promoted Inspector and stationed at Albany, all very nice for Aunt Clarkson need to be in command of the Party. Val contracted Sandy Blight, so the 2 Clarkson ~~brothers~~ brothers went ahead, one was killed by the abos., the other perished from thirst. John Brockman eventually took Charge (this happened in the Murchison) and took the party through to Rochourne, from start to finish the party was 2½ years on the road.

& a Spanish girl Alice who lived many years & died in Santa Barbara County. Uncle Robt was a rock, his chief occupation was keeping women, & Aunt Letitia & the children lived chiefly on at Rancho. & Eso Land.
When at Long Beach Hiram Hodgkin & wife
& at 2 next U.A & took after his Mother
Children ~~were born~~ in Pa until [illegible] & [illegible] Pa married Dr's daughter who ~~was~~ ~~had~~ had the Gay Irish Maid Lizzie Bonar &
Jim for them, Willy [illegible]
Lives until U.A married Pa N.M when Jim at Letitia was sent on a visit
My father at Pinkie now in hospital Edinburgh Learned at L the Jet, Schantung Kids — Rue &
Some Rug & Jet, Black Cat to Australia — Rustic Steps Pat came home with Clarkson huge dog Tweed, one Easter
Card it for text Pat was Thought by an Aeroplane Cartoon, One Clarkson Valentine & Jo also Stuck into Pat Scrap & the other Clarkson [illegible] of the Boat. Pat cowhide Lipstick, as Pa &
Clarkson Xmas Cottage Cake, with mo Rabbit
Pa Alice, Pa Pat Pa Jim Jim Pa
Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa
Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa
Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa Pa

Grandma's maiden name was Branson, and she was a cousin of Grandpapa's, her Christian name you can find in that list Grandpapa handed to the W.A. Govt. when applying for his Land Grant.

She was a horsewoman, because my Father told me that when a groom led her mount to the mounting block she would damp her handkerchief and rub her horse's coat to see that her horse had been thoroughly groomed. Grandpa fox-hunted even when a College under-Graduate and a fellow collegiate painted him a small set of hunting pictures. The Meet. The Draw. Tallyho for all away! The Kill, &c. These framed came to W.A., passed to Aunt Theodosia Hesten and from her to Jessica ~~Her~~ Inglis and were burnt recently when her home at Boyup Brook went up.

Eva might be able to tell you who has a scrap of one of Grandma's frocks, it is cream(?) silk embroidered with vine leaves and in real seed pearls. I have seen it but forget the owner. They must have been well "ribbed up" because when Grandpa went back to England to raise more money by getting Uncle Henry to break the entail of Shackenstone he was away 6 years and ran in debt £6.000. Which U.H.

had to pay out of the proceeds of Shakerstone lest Grandpa's Creditors put him in the Fleet, which was not an ordinary prison but a place where debtors were detained until they paid up. If the debtors' relations tired of paying up for their squandering liked to provide for them they lived in comfort. Some of them married and had their wives with them. "The Chaplain of the Fleet" (by Reid or Reed) a well known old novel, is written around this institution. You can look it up in my Century Dictionary that Joan has.

Meantime Grandma had to sell some of their possessions, ~~the~~ including family plate. Yet all the Children (7) shared out a good deal of solid silver at Grandpa's death. Tilly - Mrs. Val Hester - has 10r 2 silver candlesticks, a snuffers and a shoe of silk brocade with a high red heel that some Hall Woman danced in at a Court Ball.

Pencil Notes by H. A. Hall (Coffee and ink spilt on the pencilled notes)

Grandma's maiden name was Branson and she was a cousin of Grandpa's - you can find in that list Grand Papa handed to the W.A. Govt. when applying for his land grant. She was a horsewoman, because my father told me when a groom led her mount to the mounting block she would damp her hdkf. & rub her horse's coat to see that her horse had been thoroughly groomed Grandpa Fox hunted when a college undergraduate & a fellow collegiate painted him a small set of hunting pictures The meet, The show, Yoicks for a a away!! The Kill etc. These came to W.A. passed to Aunt Theodosia Hester & from her to Jessica Ingles & were burnt recently when her home at Boyup Brook went up.
Eva might be able to tell you who has a scrap of ~~[illegible]~~ of one of grandma's frocks, it is cream? Silk embroided in real seed pearls. I have seen it but forget the owner.
Grandpa went back to England to raise more money by getting Uncle Henry to break the entail of Shackerstone. (2) he was away six years & ran in debt £6000 which H.H. had to pay out of the Proceeds of Shackerstone Next Grandpa's creditors put him in the Fleet, which was not an ordinary Prison but a place where debtors were detained until they paid up, if the debtor's relations tired of paying up for their squandering liked to provide for them they loved in comfort, some of them married & had their wives with them.
"The Chaplain of the Fleet" (by Reid or Reed) a well known old Novel is written around this Institution. You can look it up in my Century Dictionary that Joan has.
Meanwhile Grandma had to sell some of their possessions including Family Plate yet all the children (7) shared out a good deal of solid silver at Grandpa's death. Tilly Mrs Val Hester had 1 or 2 Silver candlesticks & a snuffers & a shoe of silk brocade with a high red heel that some Hall woman danced in at a Court Ball

H Thomas
1/8/1992.

[illegible]

Invitation card from Lord Hastings

Arms ‡

Peel's freeing corn from import duty halved the value of all England's land holders' estates and it was this prospective reform probably that caused the Halls, Brockmans, Hamersleys, &c. to accept the Home Govt's offer of large land grants in the Swan River Settlement. England at that time wanted the W side of Australia occupied lest the French should annex it.

A Lord Hastings married a daughter of Mr. Stevens, formerly Hall.

If the Hall line ran out Shakenstone would have passed to the Hastings title

Charlie Smith's daughters, Mrs. Lawson (Frank Hall's son), Mrs. Gull, Mrs. Reedy, Lady Dwyer.

Poe, Brockman, Lee-Steere, Leake, Clifton, Drummond, Bunbury, Molloy, Egerton-Warburton, Lazenby, Hesters.

Pencil Notes of H. A. Hall.

Invitation card from Lord Hastings.
Arms ‡

Peel's freeing corn from import duty halved the value of all England's land holders Estates + it was this prospective reform probably that caused the Halls Brockmans Hamersleys etc to accept the Home Govts offer of large land grants in the Swan River Settlement.
England at that time wanted the W side of Australia occupied lest the French should annex it.

If Lord Hastings married a daughter of Mr Stevens formerly Hall.
If the Hall line ran out Shaderstone would have passed to the Hastings title

Charlie Smith's daughters, Mrs Lawson Gull Mrs Reedy, Lady Dwyer:

Roe, Brockman, Lee-Steere, Leake, Clifton Drummond, Bunbury, Molloy, Egerton-Warburton, Lazenby, Hesters.

Pencil Notes by H.A. Stall (spilt coffee + ink marks)

James Anderton [Stall] married Mt. Lucy Lazenby (Ancient) for a time rented Wongong, later Muckle for a time land at Beenyup + also at Mundijong dairying + dealing in cattle .....
during this period he lost his wife Lucy Lazenby
+ had his sister Aunt Laetitia housekeeping for his orphaned children. Clarence (died of measles in Rockhampton) Kate died of typhoid in Rockhampton, Willie who afterwards owned Glenforrie Station on the Murchison, drank himself out of it + ended his days, a bachelor,
with Eva at Burracup
Ernest [illegible] + Sam (married Effie Murray) Aunt Laetitia married Robt. Hester, brother to Mt. Theodosia's husband Edwd. Hester, he was a master, in those early days, there were I think no town Police, only Soldiers + Mounted Troopers to handle the hostile Abos, escaped convicts + influence was needed to get into this force Edwd. + Robt. Hester's father, Capt. Hester who fought at Waterloo + was R.M. for the Canning District got both E + R into this force E left - fairly soon + started a Store in Bunbury + after success there, took up Blackwood Park. Robt. stayed + was promoted Insp. + stationed at Albany - all very nice for Mt. Laetitia until Robt. embezzled, was sacked + had to go on the land near Blackwood Park. Issue 3 children, Valentine married Matilda Ann Logue, Reg married Rose Medcalf from Victoria, governess to the Heppingstones at Bunbendup, (2) + a spastic girl Alice who lived many years + died in Perth Lunatic Asylum.
Uncle Robt. wouldn't work, his chief occupation was seducing women + Aunt Laetitia + the children lived chiefly on Mt. Theodosia + U.E's bounty.
When Aunt Lucy died her boys were old enough to work + Mt L went to U.A (Anderton) to look after his motherless children who only had the young Nurse Maid Lillian Bruce to care for them, things went very swimmingly (for some time) until U.A [Uncle] married Mt. N.M. [Nurse Maid] when poor

Pencil Notes by H.A. Stall contd.

At. Laetitia was cut on a limb again. My Father at this time was in business in Bk. [Boorack], he secured At. L the job of School Mistress in Rbne [Rochaurne] + gave Reg a job in his Bk. business. Val came overland with Clarkson. Val was, though young an exceptional Bushman. the Clarkson + Val used to go ahead to locate water + feed + the other Clarkson would be of the Party. Val contracted Sandy Blight, the two Clarkson Bros. went ahead, one was killed by Abos, the other perished from thirst. John Brockman eventually took charge (this happened in the Murchison) + lead the party through to Rbne, from start to finish 2 years on the ~~road~~ Rd.

H Stall

File: HAHO2.DOC

Notes made by H.Aubrey Hall

The following is a transcript of sundry notes made by H.Aubrey Hall. The notes are undated, but may have been compiled between 1957 and 1961, when he was living at 35 Comer Street, Como. The notes are written in pencil, contain numerous alterations and amendments, and are not easy to read. The notes were transcribed by his daughters Constance and Margaret, and have been reproduced below, with a few minor editorial changes to make them easier to read.

Ian Berryman
10 June 1995

Uncle Jas Anderton married At Lucy Lazenby and for a time rented Wungong, later he lived at Beenyup and he lived at Mundijong dairying and dealing in cattle. During this period he lost his wife Lucy Lazenby and had his sister Aunt Letitia house keeping for his orphaned children. Clarence (died of measles in Roebourne), Kate died of typhoid in Roebourne, Willie who afterwards owned Glen Florrie Station on the Ashburton, drank himself out of it and ended his days a bachelor with Eva at Burekup, Ernest you know all about, Sam married Effie Murray. Aunt Letitia married Robt Hester, brother to Aunt Theodosia's husband Edwd Hester. He was a waster; in those early days there were I think no ... Police, only soldiers and mounted Troopers to handle the hostile abos & escaped convicts, and influence was needed to get into this force. Edwd and Robt Hester's father Capt Hester, who fought at Waterloo and was RM for the Canning District, got both E and R into this force. E left fairly soon, started a store in Bunbury and after success therin took up Blackwood Park. Robt stayed on & was promoted Inspector and stationed at Albany, all very nice for Aunt Laetitia until Robert embezzled, was sacked and had to go on the land near Blackwood Park. Issue: 3 children - Valentine married Matilda Ann Logue, Reg married Rose Medcalf from Victoria, governess to the Heppingstones at Cundenup, and a spastic girl Alice who lived many years and died in Perth Lunatic Asylum. Uncle Robert wouldn't work, his chief occupation was seducing women, and Aunt Laetitia and the children lived chiefly on Aunt Theodosia and UE's bounty.

When Aunt Lucy died her (Aunt Laetitia) boys were old enough to work and Aunt L went to UA to look after his motherless children, who only had the young nurse-maid Lilian Bruce to care for them. Things went on smoothly for some time until UA married the NM, when poor At Laetitia was out on a limb again. My father at this time was in business in Cossack, he secured At L the job of schoolmistress in Roebourne and gave Reg a job in his Cossack business. Val came overland with Clarkson. Val was, though young, an exceptional bushman, one Clarkson and Val used to go ahead to locate water and feed, and the other Clarkson used to be in command of the Party. Val contracted Sandy Blight, so the 2 Clarkson brothers went ahead, one was killed by the abos, the other perished from thirst. John Brockman eventually took charge (this happened in the Murchison) and took the party through to Roebourne, from start to finish the party was 2 years on the road.

Grandma's maiden name was Branson, and she was a cousin of Grandpapa's, her Christian name you can find in that list Grandpapa handed to the WA Govt when applying for his Land Grant.

She was a horsewoman, because my Father told me that when a groom led her mount to the mounting block she would damp her handkerchief and rub her horse's coat to see that her horse had been thoroughly groomed. Grandpa fox-hunted even when a College Undergraduate and a fellow collegiate painted him a small set of hunting pictures. The Meet. The Draw. Yoicks for all away! The Kill &c. These framed came to WA, passed to Aunt Theodosia Hester and from her to Jessica Inglis and were burnt recently when her home at Boyup Brook went up.

Eva might be able to tell you who has a scrap of one of Grandma's frocks, it is cream silk embroidered with vine leaves and in real seed pearls. I have seen it but forget the owner. They must have been well "ribbed up" because when Grandpa went back to England to raise more money by getting Uncle Henry to break the entail of Shackerstone he was away 6 years and ran into debt £6000 which U H had to pay out of the proceeds of Shackerstone lest Granpa's creditors put him in the Fleet, which was not an ordinary prison but a place where debtors were detained until they paid up. If the debtor's relations tired of paying up for their squandering liked to provide for them they lived in comfort. Some of them married and had their wives with them. The Chaplain of the Fleet (by Reid or Reed) a well known old novel, is written around this institution. You can look it up in my Century Dictionary that Joan has.

Meantime Grandma had to sell some of their possessions, including family plate. Yet all the Children (7) shared out a good deal of solid silver at Grandpa's death. Tilly - Mrs Val Hester - has 1 or 2 silver candlesticks, a snuffers and a shoe of silk brocade with a high red heel that some Hall woman danced in at a Court Ball

Invitation card from Lord Hastings

Arms

Peel's freeing corn from import duty halved the value of all England's land holders' estates and it was this prospective reform probably that caused the Halls, Brockmans, Hamersleys &c to accept the Home Govt's offer of large land grants in the Swan River Settlement. England at that time wanted the W side of Australia occupied lest the French should annex it.

A Lord Hastings married a daughter of Mr Stevens, formerly Hall.

If the Hall line ran out Shackerstone would have passed to the Hastings title.

Charlie Smith's daughters, Mrs Lawson Gull, Mrs Reedy, Lady Dwyer.

Roe, Brockman, Lee-Steere, Leake, Clifton, Drummond, Bunbury, Molloy, Egerton-Warburton, Lazenby, Hesters.

File: HAHO2.DOC

Notes made by H.Aubrey Hall

The following is a transcript of sundry notes made by H.Aubrey Hall. The notes are undated, but may have been compiled between 1957 and 1961, when he was living at 35 Comer Street, Como. The notes are written in pencil, contain numerous alterations and amendments, and are not easy to read. The notes were transcribed by his daughters Constance and Margaret, and have been reproduced below, with a few minor editorial changes to make them easier to read.

Uncle Jas Anderton married At Lucy Lazenby and for a time rented Wungong, later he lived at Beenyup and he lived at Mundijong dairying and dealing in cattle. During this period he lost his wife Lucy Lazenby and had his sister Aunt Letitia house keeping for his orphaned children. Clarence (died of measles in Roebourne), Kate died of typhoid in Roebourne, Willie who afterwards owned Glen Florrie Station on the Ashburton, drank himself out of it and ended his days a bachelor with Eva at Burekup, Ernest you know all about, Sam married Effie Murray. Aunt Letitia married Robt Hester, brother to Aunt Theodosia's husband Edwd Hester. He was a waster; in those early days there were I think no ... Police, only soldiers and mounted Troopers to handle the hostile abos & escaped convicts, and influence was needed to get into this force. Edwd and Robt Hester's father Capt Hester, who fought at Waterloo and was RM for the Canning District, got both E and R into this force. E left fairly soon, started a store in Bunbury and after success therin took up Blackwood Park. Robt stayed on & was promoted Inspector and stationed at Albany, all very nice for Aunt Laetitia until Robert embezzled, was sacked and had to go on the land near Blackwood Park. Issue: 3 children - Valentine married Matilda Ann Logue, Reg married Rose Medcalf from Victoria, governess to the Heppingstones at Cundenup, and a spastic girl Alice who lived many years and died in Perth Lunatic Asylum. Uncle Robert wouldn't work, his chief occupation was seducing women, and Aunt Laetitia and the children lived chiefly on Aunt Theodosia and UE's bounty.

When Aunt Lucy died her (Aunt Laetitia) boys were old enough to work and Aunt L went to UA to look after his motherless children, who only had the young nurse-maid Lilian Bruce to care for them. Things went on smoothly for some time until UA married the NM, when poor At Laetitia was out on a limb again. My father at this time was in business in Cossack, he secured At L the job of schoolmistress in Roebourne and gave Reg a job in his Cossack business. Val came overland with Clarkson. Val was, though young, an exceptional bushman, one Clarkson and Val used to go ahead to locate water and feed, and the other Clarkson used to be in command of the Party. Val contracted Sandy Blight, so the 2 Clarkson brothers went ahead, one was killed by the abos, the other perished from thirst. John Brockman eventually took charge (this happened in the Murchison) and took the party through to Roebourne, from start to finish the party was 2 years on the road.

Grandma's maiden name was Branson, and she was a cousin of Grandpapa's, her Christian name you can find in that list Grandpapa handed to the WA Govt when applying for his Land Grant.

She was a horsewoman, because my Father told me that when a groom led her mount to the mounting block she would damp her handkerchief and rub her horse's coat to see that her horse had been thoroughly groomed. Grandpa fox-hunted even when a College Undergraduate and a fellow collegiate painted him a small set of hunting pictures. The Meet. The Draw. Yoicks for all away! The Kill &c. These framed came to WA, passed to Aunt Theodosia Hester and from her to Jessica Inglis and were burnt recently when her home at Boyup Brook went up.

Eva might be able to tell you who has a scrap of one of Grandma's frocks, it is cream silk embroidered with vine leaves and in real seed pearls. I have seen it but forget the owner. They must have been well "ribbed up" because when Grandpa went back to England to raise more money by getting Uncle Henry to break the entail of Shackerstone he was away 6 years and ran into debt £6000 which U H had to pay out of the proceeds of Shackerstone lest Granpa's creditors put him in the Fleet, which was not an ordinary prison but a place where debtors were detained until they paid up. If the debtor's relations tired of paying up for their squandering liked to provide for them they lived in comfort. Some of them married and had their wives with them. The Chaplain of the Fleet (by Reid or Reed) a well known old novel, is written around this institution. You can look it up in my Century Dictionary that Joan has.

Meantime Grandma had to sell some of their possessions, including family plate. Yet all the Children (7) shared out a good deal of solid silver at Grandpa's death. Tilly - Mrs Val Hester - has 1 or 2 silver candlesticks, a snuffers and a shoe of silk brocade with a high red heel that some Hall woman danced in at a Court Ball

Invitation card from Lord Hastings
Arms

Peel's freeing corn from import duty halved the value of all England's land holders' estates and it was this prospective reform probably that caused the Halls, Brockmans, Hamersleys &c to accept the Home Govt's offer of large land grants in the Swan River Settlement.

England at that time wanted the W side of Australia occupied lest the French should annex it.

A Lord Hastings married a daughter of Mr Stevens, formerly Hall.

If the Hall line ran out Shackerstone would have passed to the Hastings title.

Charlie Smith's daughters, Mrs Lawson Gull, Mrs Reedy, Lady Dwyer.

Roe, Brockman, Lee-Steere, Leake, Clifton, Drummond, Bunbury, Molloy, Egerton-Warburton, Lazenby, Hesters.

large land grants in the Swan River Settlement. England at that time wanted the W side of Australia occupied lest the French should annex it.

A Lord Hastings married a daughter of Mr Stevens, formerly Hall.

If the Hall line ran out Shackerstone would have passed to the Hastings title.

Charlie Smith's daughters, Mrs Lawson Gull, Mrs Reedy, Lady Dwyer.

Roe, Brockman, Lee-Steere, Leake, Clifton, Drummond, Bunbury, Molloy, Egerton-Warburton, Lazenby, Hesters.

her handkerchief and rub her horse's coat to see that her horse had been thoroughly groomed. Grandpa fox-hunted even when a College Undergraduate and a fellow collegiate painted him a small set of hunting pictures. The Meet. The Draw. Yoicks for all away! The Kill &c. These framed came to WA, passed to Aunt Theodosia Hester and from her to Jessica Inglis and were burnt recently when her home at Boyup Brook went up.

Eva might be able to tell you who has a scrap of one of Grandma's frocks, it is cream silk embroidered with vine leaves and in real seed pearls. I have seen it but forget the owner. They must have been well "ribbed up" because when Grandpa went back to England to raise more money by getting Uncle Henry to break the entail of Shackerstone he was away 6 years and ran into debt È6000 which U H had to pay out of the proceeds of Shackerstone lest Granpa's creditors put him in the Fleet, which was not an ordinary prison but a place where debtors were detained until they paid up. If the debtor's relations tired of paying up for their squandering liked to provide for them they lived in comfort. Some of them married and had their wives with them. The Chaplain of the Fleet (by Reid or Reed) a well known old novel, is written around this institution. You can look it up in my Century Dictionary that Joan has.

Meantime Grandma had to sell some of their possessions, including family plate. Yet all the Children (7) shared out a good deal of solid silver at Grandpa's death. Tilly - Mrs Val Hester - has 1 or 2 silver candlesticks, a snuffers and a shoe of silk brocade with a high red heel that some Hall woman danced in at a Court Ball

Invitation card from Lord Hastings
Arms

Peel's freeing corn from import duty halved the value of all England's land holders' estates and it was this prospective reform probably that caused the Halls, Brockmans, Hamersleys &c to accept the Home Govt's offer of

File: HAH01.WPS

Notes made by H.A. HALL

The following is a transcript of sundry notes made by H. Aubrey Hall. The notes are undated, ~~but were the~~ but may have been compiled ~~late in his life~~ during the time that he was living at 35 Comet Street, Como. The notes are in pencil, ~~and~~ contain numerous alterations and amendments, and are not easy to read, ~~since par~~ The notes were transcribed by Constance Bergum and have been reproduced below, with a few minor editorial changes to make them easier to read.

Ian Bergum

6 September 1992